1. Chapter 1

Hello guys So...This is my first stranger things fanfiction. Stranger things is my favorite tv show right now and I been wanting to write a fanfiction but I didn't have any ideas for one until now. So here is some descriptions about the story...

1)they're sixteen years old and are sophomore in high school in this story

2)This is going to be a mileven pregnancy story

3)Hopper and Joyce are married and live together so Will and El are brother and sister in this story

4)Nancy and Johnathan are in college in this story so their won't be in this story as much

That's it you guys! I hope you enjoy!

"El,are you done?Just pee on the stick already,"Mike said as he was impatiently waiting outside of El bathroom as he thought about how he ended up in this situation he thought that he and El we never be in

"Don't rush me! You know how hard it is to pee on a stick"El yelled from the inside of the bathroom

Turth was that it wasn't hard to pee on a stick ,it was just an excuse. She wasn't ready,and she is freaking out that she was In a position that she never thought she would be in. She was too afraid to pee on the pregnancy test and face the reality.

After it took like almost an hour In there,she finally came out holding out a box that she put the two pregnancy tests in that she does not have the guts to look at. Mike was nervously sitting at the corner of her bed waiting for her.

El sat next to Mike with an awkward silence,not knowing what to say to him or to even look at him

"What does the tests say?"Mike asked breaking the silence

"I haven't looked at them yet,"

"You spent almost like an hour in there, and your telling me that you haven't looked at the tests,"he sighs

" I didn't want to look at them alone,this is really hard for me,I though you would understand"Tears started falling down to her cheek

Mike was shocked that he made her cry,it wasn't his intention and he felt guilty for it. In turth he felt guilty for whole things and situation that they were In right now and felt as it was technically his fault. If only he was have stopped it so going to far and sleeping with El that one night and knowing that he should have wore a condom that night.

"I sorry El,out of all the people I should've understood,I the one who put you in this ituation,whatever those tests say,I know it's was my fault,that you are In this position. I put you in this position and I'm so sorry El"And El started crying even harder and all he wanted to do was repeat his words because he really meant what he said and he doesn't know what to say than to say sorry and blame himself.

El placed the box on the bed between them

"Between the both of us, we know that it wasn't your fault. Stop blaming yourself,you're are making me feel wrost"

Flashback

"Would you just stop being so jealous all the time,I swear I this tripped on top of Max El,God I don't any know I put up with you"Mike yelled

"Fine go be with Max I don't care anymore,I hate you mike wheeler,get out of my house"El said as tears starting falling down to her cheek

Mike turned and walk about to walk out of El house when he stopped and turned and lookex at El who was crying

"El I'm sorry I wasn't thinking ,please don't cry,let me stay here please El"Mike said as he walked up to El

El back away a little and looked into Mike eyes"Mike just please this go I need to be alone"she said

They stood there staring at each other for a few minutes until Mike saw walking toward the front door again

"I'm sorry El,call me if you need anything"Mike opened the front door and walked out of the house

El locked the door and then slides down and sobbed into her arms. After a few minutes El felt asleep on the floor.

A few hours later El woke up the sound of someone knocking on the front door. She got up and opened the door to see Mike standing there with a rose in his hand.

"Look I know you don't want to see me right now but I this thought I check up on you,and hopper called me and asked if I could check up on you"

Mike walked inside as El closed and locked the door behind him"I got this for you"Mike said as he hold out the rose to her

"Thank"El said as she grabbed the rose and walked into the kitchen and placed it on the kitchen table

"Do you want me to say here with you?,Hopper told me that him and Joyce won't be back until tomorrow afternoon from dropping off Will at that camp"Mike said as El walked back into the Living Room

El nodded and sat down on the couch as Mike sat down next to her

"Mike I sorry please forgive me"

"El I forgive you,but I should be the one apologising as I shouldn't have yelled at you"

"Mike I forgive you can we just forget about the fight,and pretend as if it never happened and move on"

"Of course I love you El",Mike said as he putted his arm around her and smiled at her

They stared at each other for a few minutes in silence until Mike suddenly kissed El, after a minute El started kissing back and deepen the kiss.

It was now turning a makeout session as Mike placed his arms around El hips and rubbed his hand up and down her back, while El started playing with his shirt. El then unbutton his shirt and throw it on the floor leaving Mike now shirtless.

Mike stopped the kiss after quite some time and took a deep breath, and look at el who was smiling at him

"Are you so about this El, I mean we could wait until you're ready, I don't want to focus you into doing anything you don't want go do"

"Mike I love you, and I'm ready and I want this more then anything right now"

Mike then smiled at her and then started kissing her again but with more passion this time. El placed her hands on his jean while mike placed his hands on her shirt, They hormones were raging now, and looked at each other In the eyes wasn't helping. They continued kissing each other with full of passion. As Mike trailed on his kiss on her neck, El whisperer,

"Please Mike I want this more then anything, I need this" El said as she then unbutton Mike Jean and took they off of him and throw them on the floor leaving Mike only in his boxer now. Mike then took off El shirt and stared at her bra for a few minutes before placed his hands on her jean.

They have sex on the couch ,and soon they bodies were covered under a blanket as El was peacefully asleep with her head and her hands on Mike's he looked at El peacefully sleeping with her head on his chest, he realized how much his really loved her and cared for her. He looked at their clothes that were now on the floor and quickly looked back at El with a small smile

Mike gently kissed her forehead and accidentally woke her up as she looked and smiled at her

"I Love you mike"

"I Love you to El" Mike said as he smiled at her

End of Flashback

Mike grabbed the box that El placed between them,

"Are you ready to look at them?"

"I don't want to look, you look, please" she said softly while sobbing

Mike then took out the tests from the box and look at them and saw that they both read positive

Mike moved closer to El and reached out for her hand

"We're In this together"

And her sobbed becamer louder as she buried her face in his chest and crie

"El it going to be ok I know we're young and still in high school, but it going to be ok we get through this together, I promise" Mike said as El softly continued to cry on his chest.

The next day El couldn't bring herself to wake up to get ready for school or look at her parents as she thought about the disappointed look they will give her,if they found out about her pregnancy. "Whatever come on guys let go" Troy said as he and his friends walked away

"Man I hate him" Max said as the rest of the party this nodded their head in agreement with her

Soon everyone expects Mike and El left as they were still waiting on Hopper to pick them up

"Where is she?"Hopper asked as he looked at Max

The paramedics and Hopper along with Steve followed Max to the restroom,Hopper rushed over to El and picked her up. He slowly placed her on the stretcher and then looked over at Steve and Max.

"Come on let go,I call the Wheelers and Joyce once we get to the hospital"Hopper said as they followed the paramedics outside

They got in Hooper car and followed the ambulance to the hospital lucky traffic wasn't bad as Hooper and the ambulance both had their sirens on which helped them get to the hospital faster.

Mike was about to say something but was cut off as El doctor walked up to them.

"Hello, I'm Doctor Jones" Dr. Jones said as he greeted them"Are your the family of El Hopper?"

"Yes how is she, and is the baby ok?Mike asked as he walked away from Hopper and walked up to Dr. Jones

4. Chapter 4

Here chapter four. Enjoy!

Dr. Jones sighs as he looked at Hopper "Will the baby is fine but Jane is still unconscious, and we didn't know how long she will be unconscious"

Hopper walked up to Dr. Jones as he took a deep breath "is there anything you could do?" He asked

"I'd already administered an IV, hopefully, she will wake up soon as we will this have to hope for the best," Dr. Jones said

Dr. Jones looked at the group one last time before walking away. Hopper then turned and looked at Mike as he walked up to him.

"This is all your fault wheeler you did this her. Why couldn't your two this had played it safe and not have sex! She wouldn't even be in this mess and it all your fault wheeler you knocked her up!" Hopper said

"Hopper calm down stop being for hard on Mike there are both teenagers Hopper, and they have hormones that they can't control, "Joyce said as she walked up to Hopper

"But he has gotten my baby girl pregnant at sixteen," Hooper said as he turned around and looked at Joyce

"Sir trust me I feel awful about this, but I'm not going to ever leave El or our baby" Mike said

"You're still young and in high school still your can't probably raise a child yet" Hopper said

It fell silent for a few minutes as Mike didn't say anything and sat back down next to Max and looked down at the floor.

"Don't worry he dosen't mean it he is this in shock right now" Max whispered into Mike's ear

"You got my sister pregnant" Will said as he glared at Mike

"Look I sorry but please don't end our friendship because I was stupid and careless" Mike said

"I'm not going to stop being friend with you I was just upset that you have gotten my sister pregnant while young" Will said "and I will be here for you still if you ever need someone to talk to" He added

"Thank," Mike said as he gives Will a small smile

"Michael I'm very disappointed in you but your father and I will support your" Karen said "Right ted" She added as she turned and looked at her husband

Ted stood up from his chair and faced Mike with an expression Mike never seen him have before.

"How could you had been so stupid and irresponsible Michael, you're only sixteen and in high school still" Ted yelled

"We didn't mean for it to happen, but I'm not leaving her as I'm going to be by her side the whole time," Mike said

"I will not have you throw your life away over this mistake," Ted said

"This baby is not a mistake, and I'm not throwing my life away" Mike replied as he walked up to his father

"I will not support this and your decision Mike"

Ted! "Karen exclaimed

"I will not allow this Karen, and he is not welcomed home anymore if he's going to keep that mistake" Ted stated

Mike felt the anger boiling in his blood with every word that kept out of his father's mouth. He sighs and took a deep before speaking.

"For the last time this baby is not a mistake and we're going to have this baby whether you support us or not"

"Karen we're leaving now," Ted said as he turned and looked at his wife

"Fine leave but expect me back home anytime soon" Mike yelled as he watched his father walk out the front doors of the hospital

"Michael this give him some time, and he will come around eventually", Karen said as she looked at her son

"How I'm not surprised that you're taking his side and defending him like you always do, "Mike said

"Mike you know I love you and I will support you and I'm not taking his side" Karen said "All I'm saying is that he will come around eventually" She added

"Why are you still trying to defend him when he clearly doesn't any give a shit about me" Mike shouted

"Mike!"

"This leave please I not in the mood to hear your apologies for dad actions right now"

Karen looked at her son and sighs as she turned and walked out the doors as Mike watched her

As soon as his mother walked out he felt tears as his eyes couldn't believe his own father wouldn't support him.

"It going to be okay," Hopper said as he walked up to Mike and pulled him into a hug as Mike cried

"Why can't he just support me," Mike said as tears fell down to his cheeks "Where I'm supposed to stay at now?" Mike asked as tears continued to fall

"Don't worry you could move in with me" Steve said as he walked up to Mike and Hopper. He turned and looked at Mike

"Thank Steve" Mike said as he pulled away from Hopper and looked at Steve with a small smile "But what your parents would they be ok with me moving into your house?"Mike asked as he wiped some tears

"Trust me they are never home that much, so I sure they wouldn't mind"Steve replied

This as Mike was about to replies to Steve Dr. Jones walked up to them with a smile and turned to Hopper.

"Your daughter Jane is awake now and is doing fine," Dr. Jones said"She will be able to be discharged tomorrow as we are going to keep her here tonight for obverse"He added

"Can we see her?"Mike asked as his wiped tears off and looked at Dr. Jones

"Yes you may see her but only two at a time, "Dr. Jones said as turned and looked at Mike"She is in room 203"

Dr. Jones turned and looked at Hopper one last time before walking away from the group

"You and Max go first since El would want to see your two first," Hopper said while looking between the two of them

They nodded and walked up to the elevator and waited. As they got into the elevator Mike felt his palms sweating and they waited for the door to close as they closed his hands started shaking.

"Hey don't worry everything is going to be fine," Max said as she noticed his palms sweating and shaking

"Sorry I this nervous because I don't know how El will reaction once I tell her that everyone knows now, "Mike said"And about what happened with my parents"He added

Max didn't say anything as the elevator stopped and they walked out. She followed Mike as he walked up to the door to the room. Mike slowly and quietly opened the door and walked inside with Max close behind him.

They slowly and quietly walked further inside they saw El who was laying down looking up at the ceiling

"Hey," Mike said

El looked down and turned and smiled as she saw Mike and Max walking up to her with smiles

"How are you feeling?"Max asked

"I feeling fine a little tired but fine"El replied

"Max, may I talk to El alone in private for a minute?"Mike asked as he turned and looked at Max

"Yeah I going to go back and wait with the others in the waiting room," Max said

Max walked out and as she closed the door Mike turned around and looked back at El with a smile

"I'm so glad you and the baby are ok"

"I'm glad to that I'm fine, but Mike did anyone found out you know that I'm pregnant? El asked

Mike sighs"Yes everyone knows now as I may have accidentally let it slip"El stated

Silence fell the room as El didn't say anything as they stared at each other in silence for a few minutes.

"It ok don't worry I not upset, I get it better that they know already than later"El said"I just wish we could've told them together" She added

"I know but it is what it is"

"So what else happened while I was out?"El asked

"Will my dad wasn't very happy about you being pregnant and kicked me out of my house," Mike said"And he called the baby a mistake"El added

"I sorry this is all my fault if I wouldn't have gotten pregnant none of this would've happened, "El said as she burst into tears

"El look at me none of this is your fault, as it is more of my fault as I should have used a condom"

"Mike this isn't all your fault as take two so it is equally both of our fault, "El said" And your dad is wrong our baby is not a mistake" She added

"I guess it kinda is both of our faults as we should have been more careful," Mike said" And yeah our baby isn't a mistake"

" Just think in nine months we will become parents and we have a son or daughter" El stated

All their worries and guilt soon faded away as they smiled and stared at each other in silence

It would be a long nine months with unexpected twists and with some old familiar faces coming back.
